

Fishermen's Friends - Wednesday 5th March

Chichester Festival Theatre is hosting this production, and it is already sold out.

The group of old friends first came together in a sitting room in Port Isaac late in 1990. Since then, there have been ten albums, a BBC Folk Award, and a best-selling book. The trademark catch of sea shanties and maritime work songs form a repertoire of almost 200 titles as the Fisherman's Friends return to sing for their supper,

Our Top Marks coach leaves Alton Sainsburys at 11am, Tesco Four Marks bus stop at 11.15

The production starts at 1430, which will give us time to find lunch or wander round the Chichester shopping centre.

The price of the coach and ticket is £37, and payment details are on page 20 of the Blue Book.

Please make sure you bring your membership card, completed on the reverse with your emergency contact details.
