

War Horse

Woking theatre - Saturday 25th January 2025

Based on Michael Morpurgo's novel, the story goes from rural Devon to the trenches of the First World War, following Joey to bring him home.

South Africa's Handspring Puppet Company bring the horses to life on the stage.

The Top Marks coach will leave outside the Co-op at Four Marks at 1100, opposite Alton Sainsburys at 1115 and give us time to get lunch and a wander round Woking until the show starts at 1430.

The price to include coach and tickets to the show are £46. Payment by the end of November please. Please see page 20 of the annual programme for payment either by bank transfer (preferred) or cheque to the treasurer.

Please email excursions@altonu3a.co.uk or phone Mary Tricker on 01420 541340 to book your place.

Please bring your membership card and emergency contact details on the day.
