Suggested route: Leave Farnham one way system heading south on A287 signed for The Maltings. Continue and after almost 3 miles pass signs for Squires Garden Centre, then on a bridge over a river and signs for Frensham Little Pond to the left. Turn left into Priory lane. Follow, ignore Priory Lane carpark on the right but continue for further  $\frac{1}{4}$  mile to main carpark on right signed National Trust Frensham Little Pond.

Parking is free for National Trust members: please scan your card for your free ticket. Non members please use Paybyphone; area code: 803458 (0330 060 4037) Regretfully no cash.

10.00 am

Set off on a walk of around 5.5 miles. The route takes in Little and Great Ponds with coffee shops and toilets at each and is across mainly sandy tracks, giving the mud a miss. If the weather is fine, there are good views from the ridge between the ponds.

All walkers should carry a hand sanitizer and suitable liquid refreshment.

12.30 pm

Approx time of return to our starting point.
