The Wallace Collection / Oxford Street

Sunday 14 March 2027

The Wallace Collection is a national museum housing painting masterpieces, sculpture, furniture and ceramics. It was built over the 18th and 19th centuries by the Marquess of Hertford and Sir Richard Wallace. Gifted to the nation in 1897 by Lady Wallace, it is one of the greatest gifts of artworks ever to be transferred into public ownership. We have booked 40 self-led tours for 11.15 am to allow members to appreciate the artworks at their own pace.

The Collection is within walking distance of Selfridges for anyone who would prefer some retail therapy.

Cost and Pick Up Points

Entry for self-tours is free so the cost will be just £10 for the coach. The Top Marks coach will pick up from Four Marks (Co-op) at 9am and from Sainsbury's in Alton at 9.15 am. It will leave for the return journey at 4pm.

To Book

Please email Steph at altonu3atrips@outlook.com. When booking please specify your pick-up point. Please also let us know if you would like to tour the Collection as ticket numbers are limited to 40. All bookings will be acknowledged by email. If you do not receive a confirmation email, please let us know so that we can manage numbers.

Payment

By the end of January please and preferably by bank transfer to:

U3A Alton / 30-90-15 / 01235606

Please add the date of the trip as your reference. If you are unable to pay by bank transfer, you can send a cheque to the Treasurer (the address is in the Blue Book).
